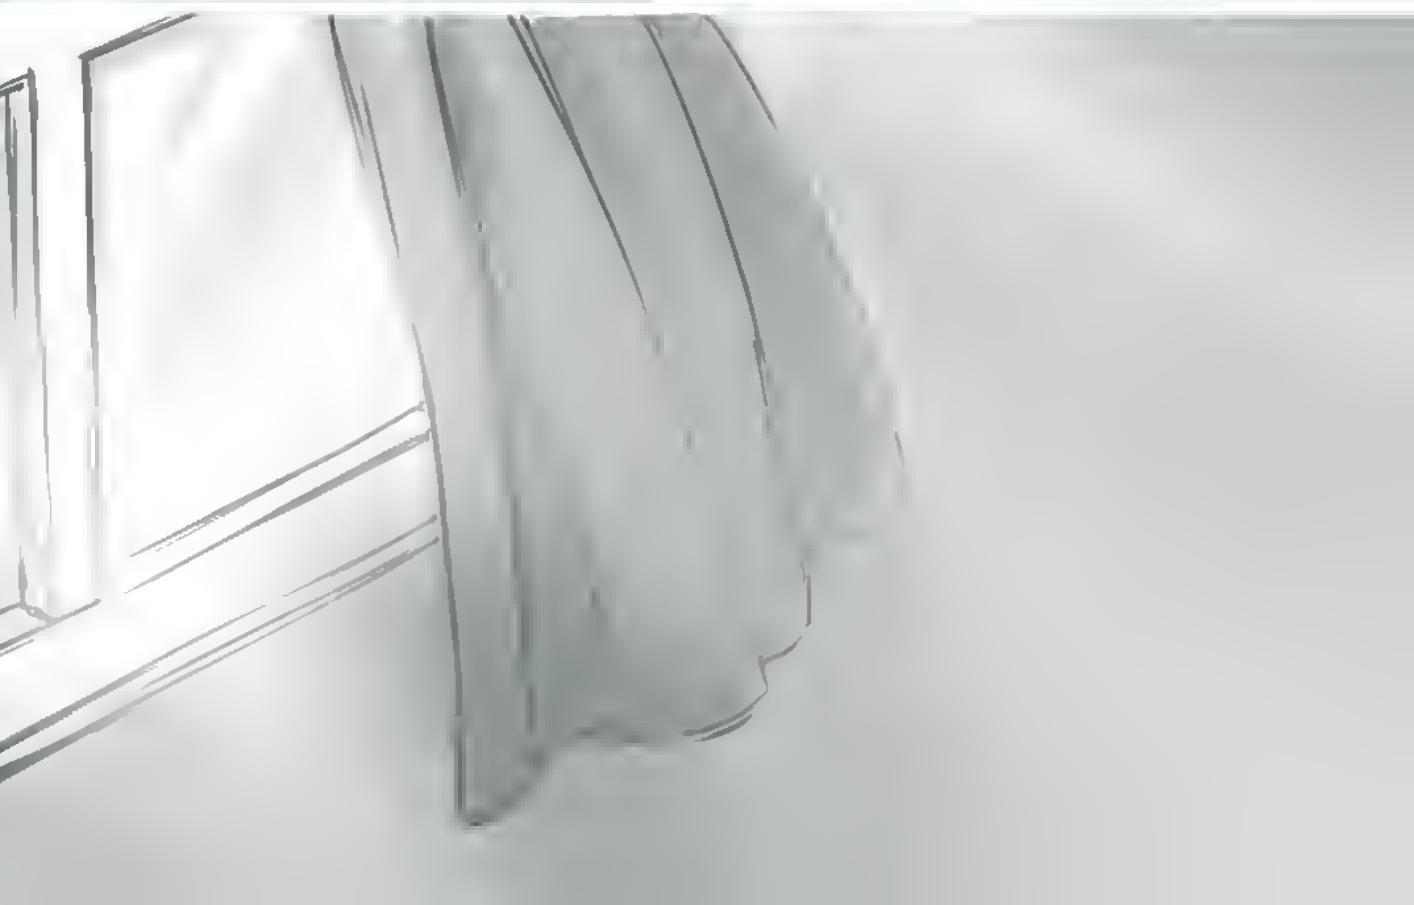
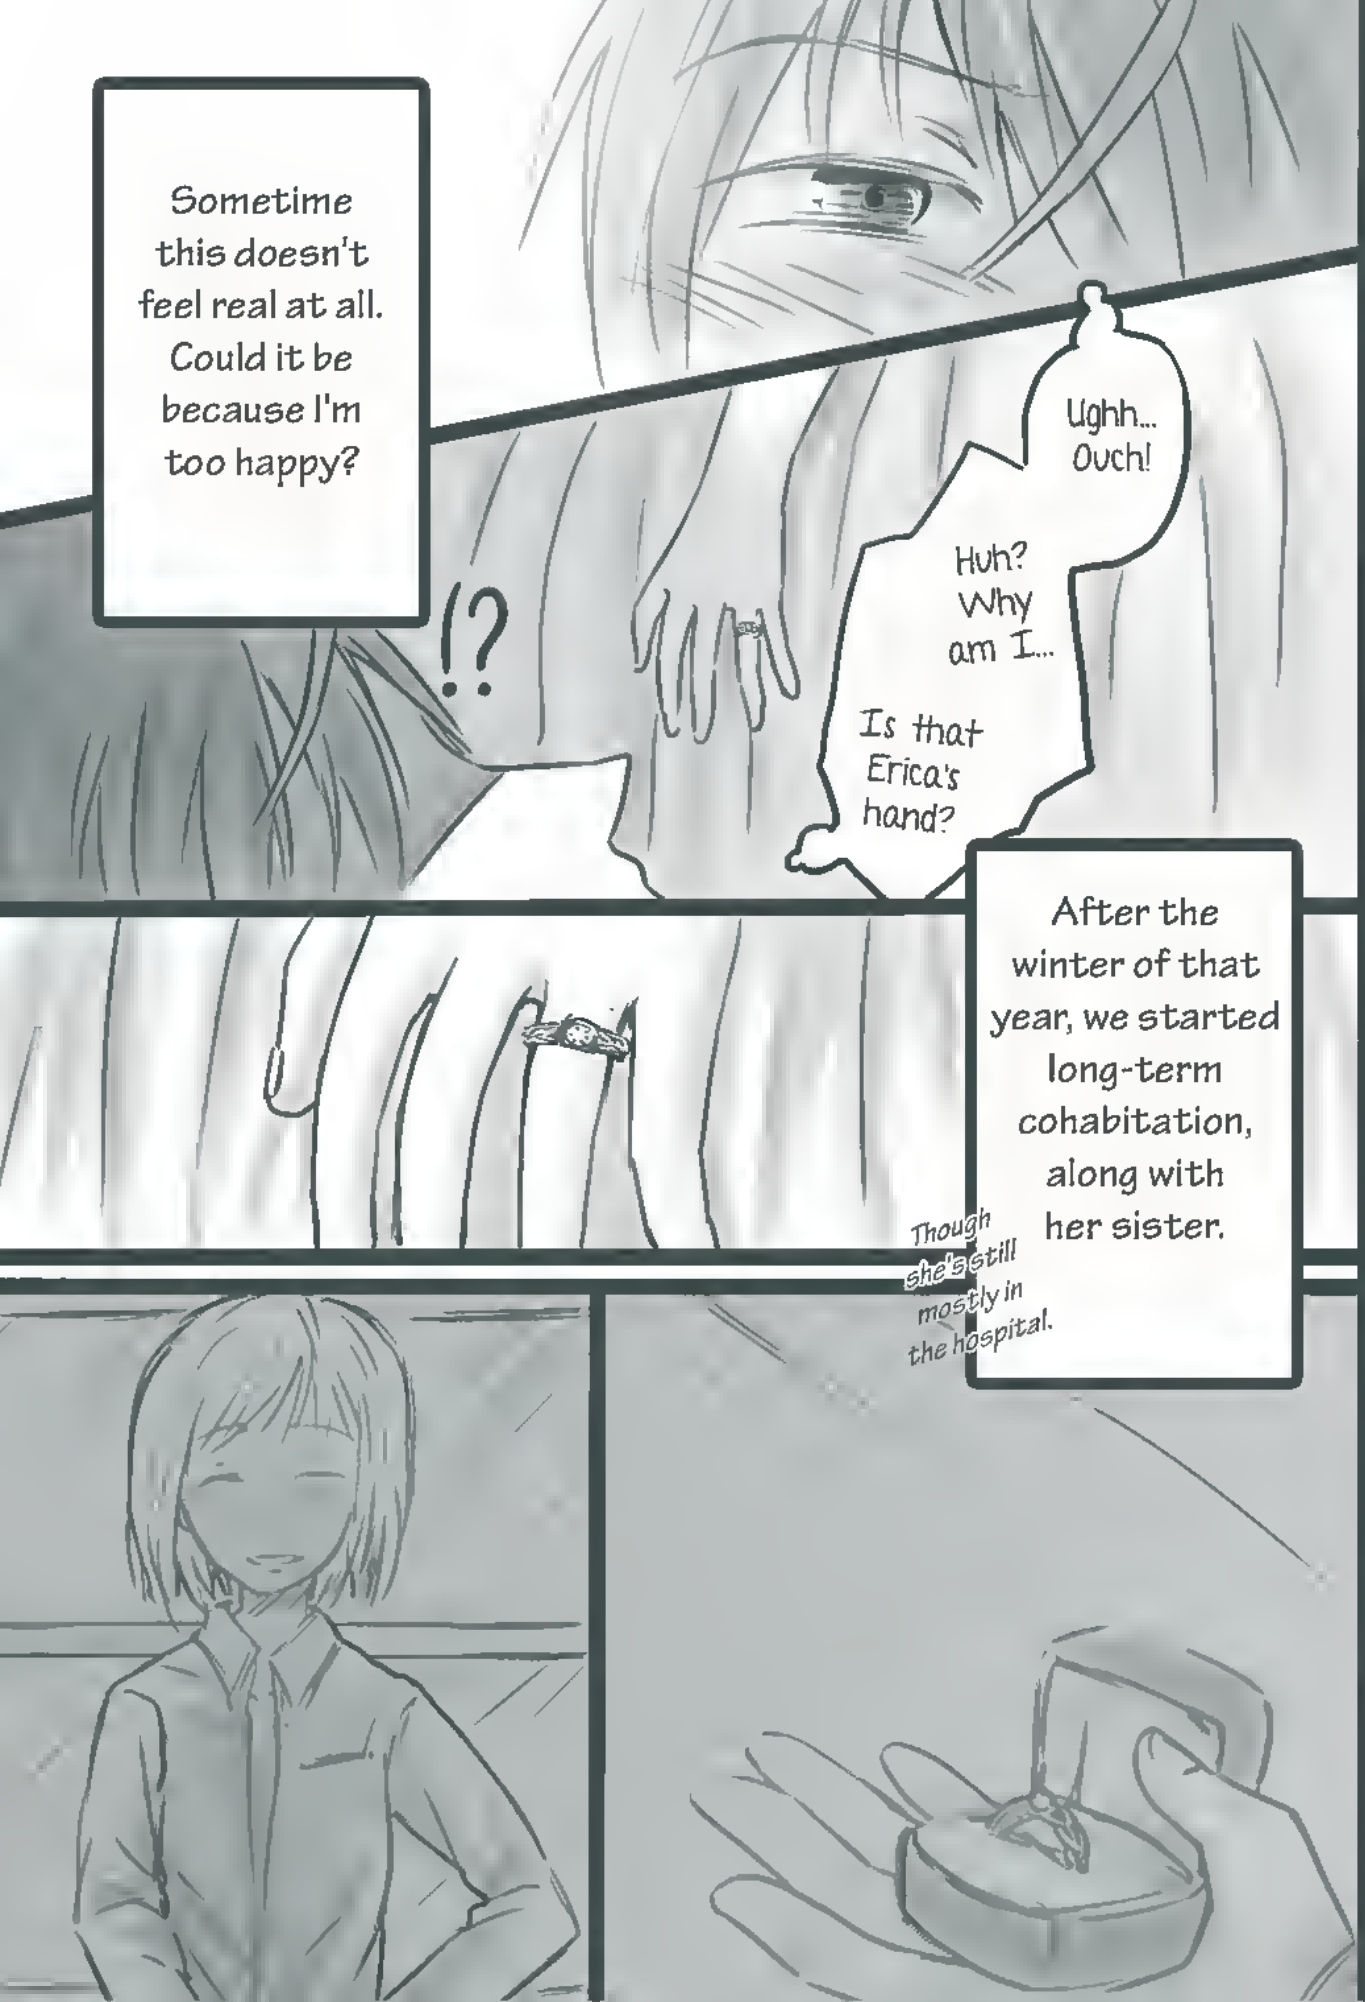
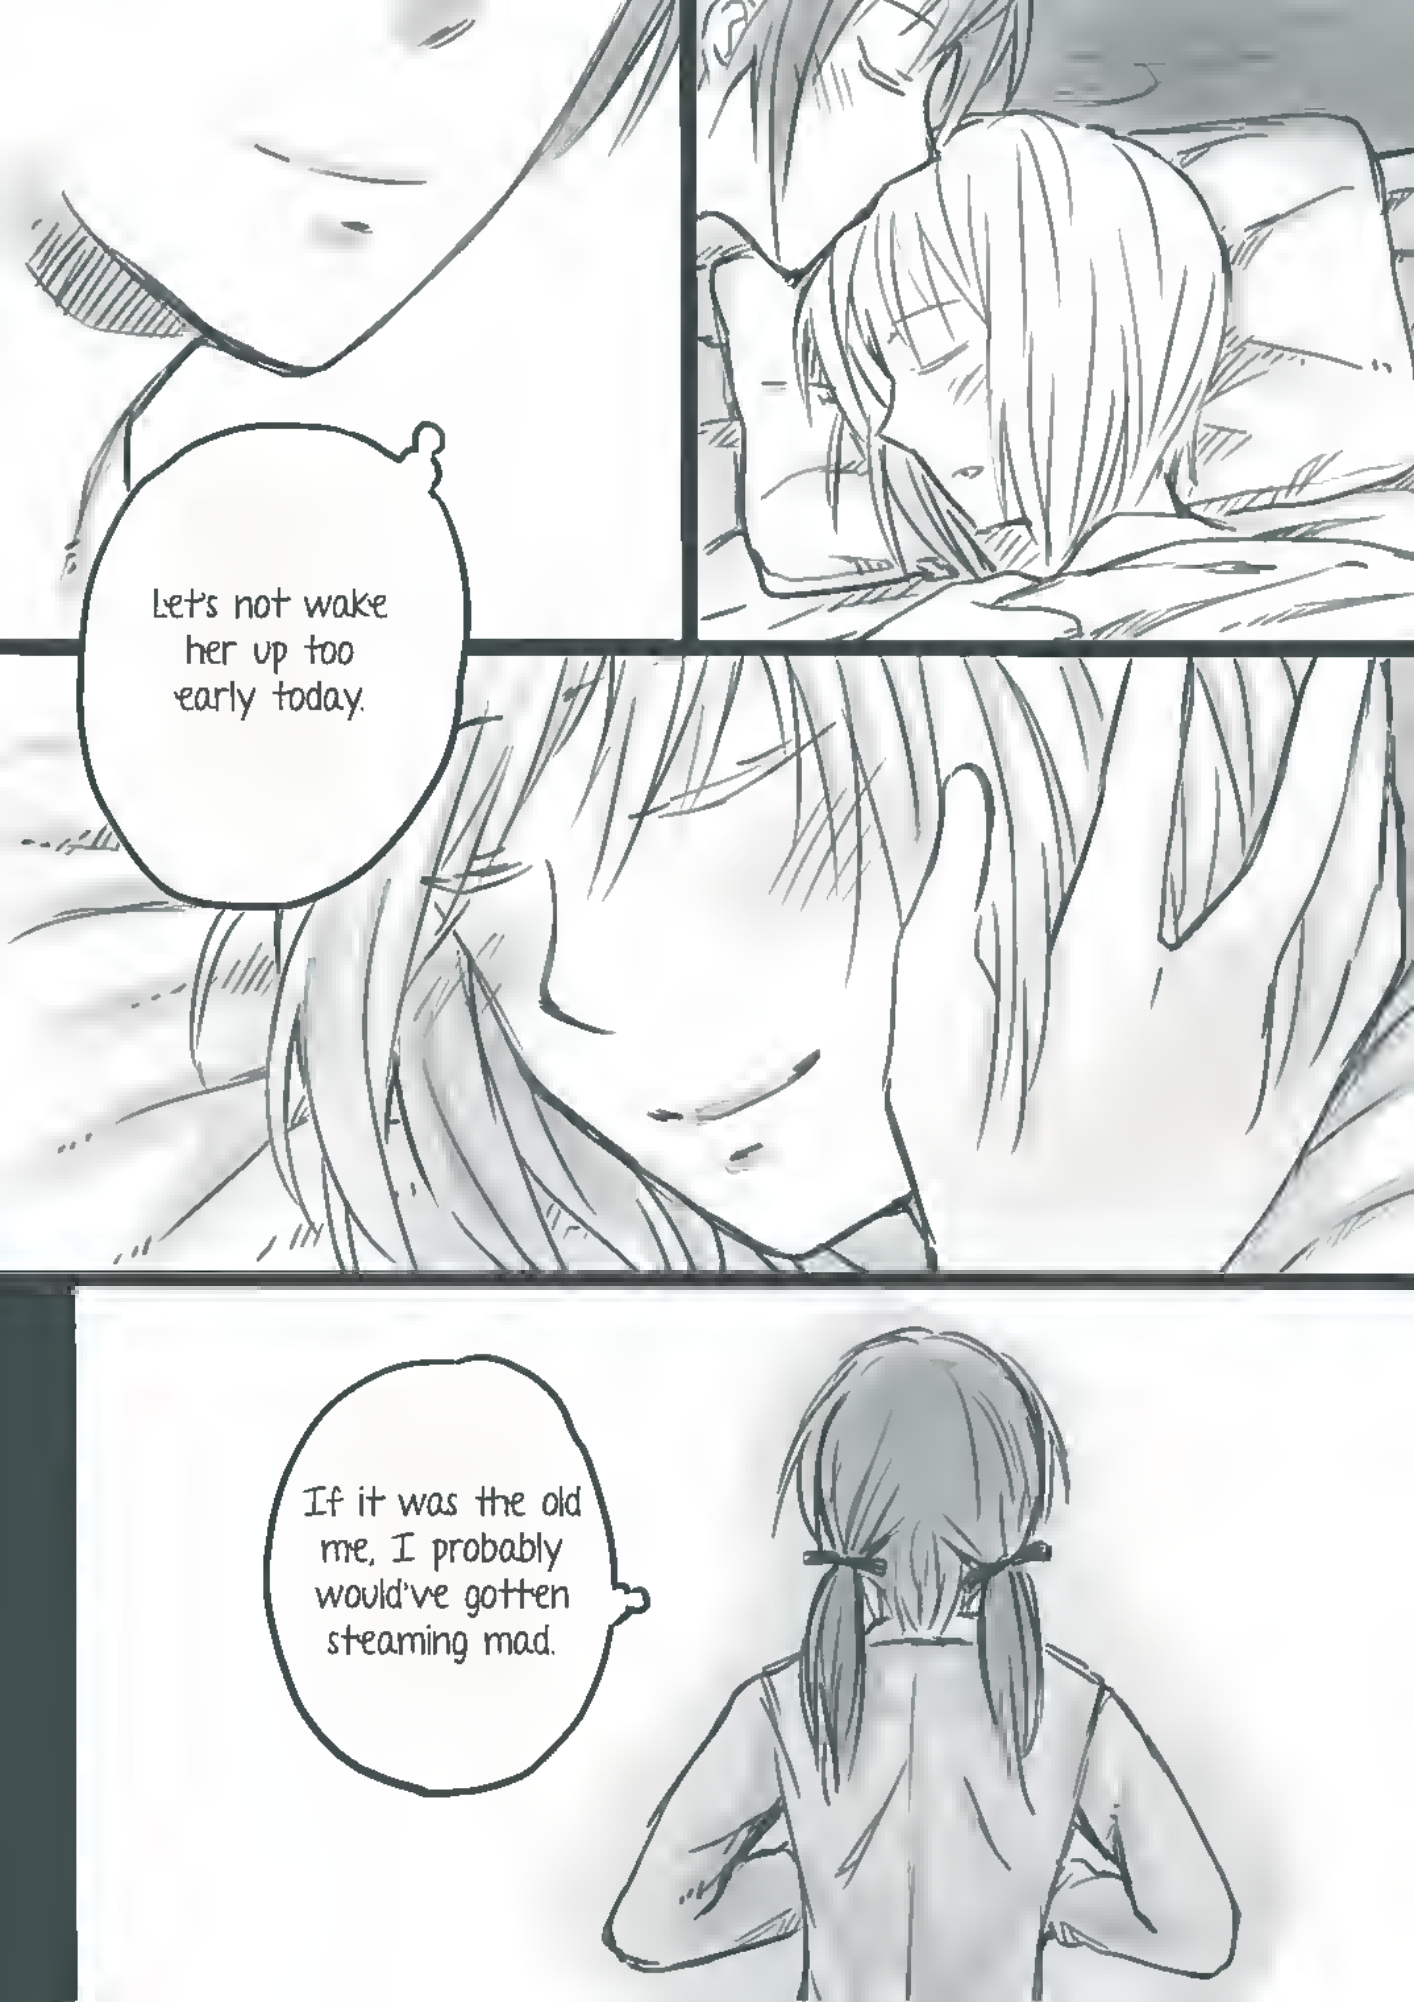
Just One Last Time

In 1948, we started dating.
The amazing thing is, everything from before didn't change.

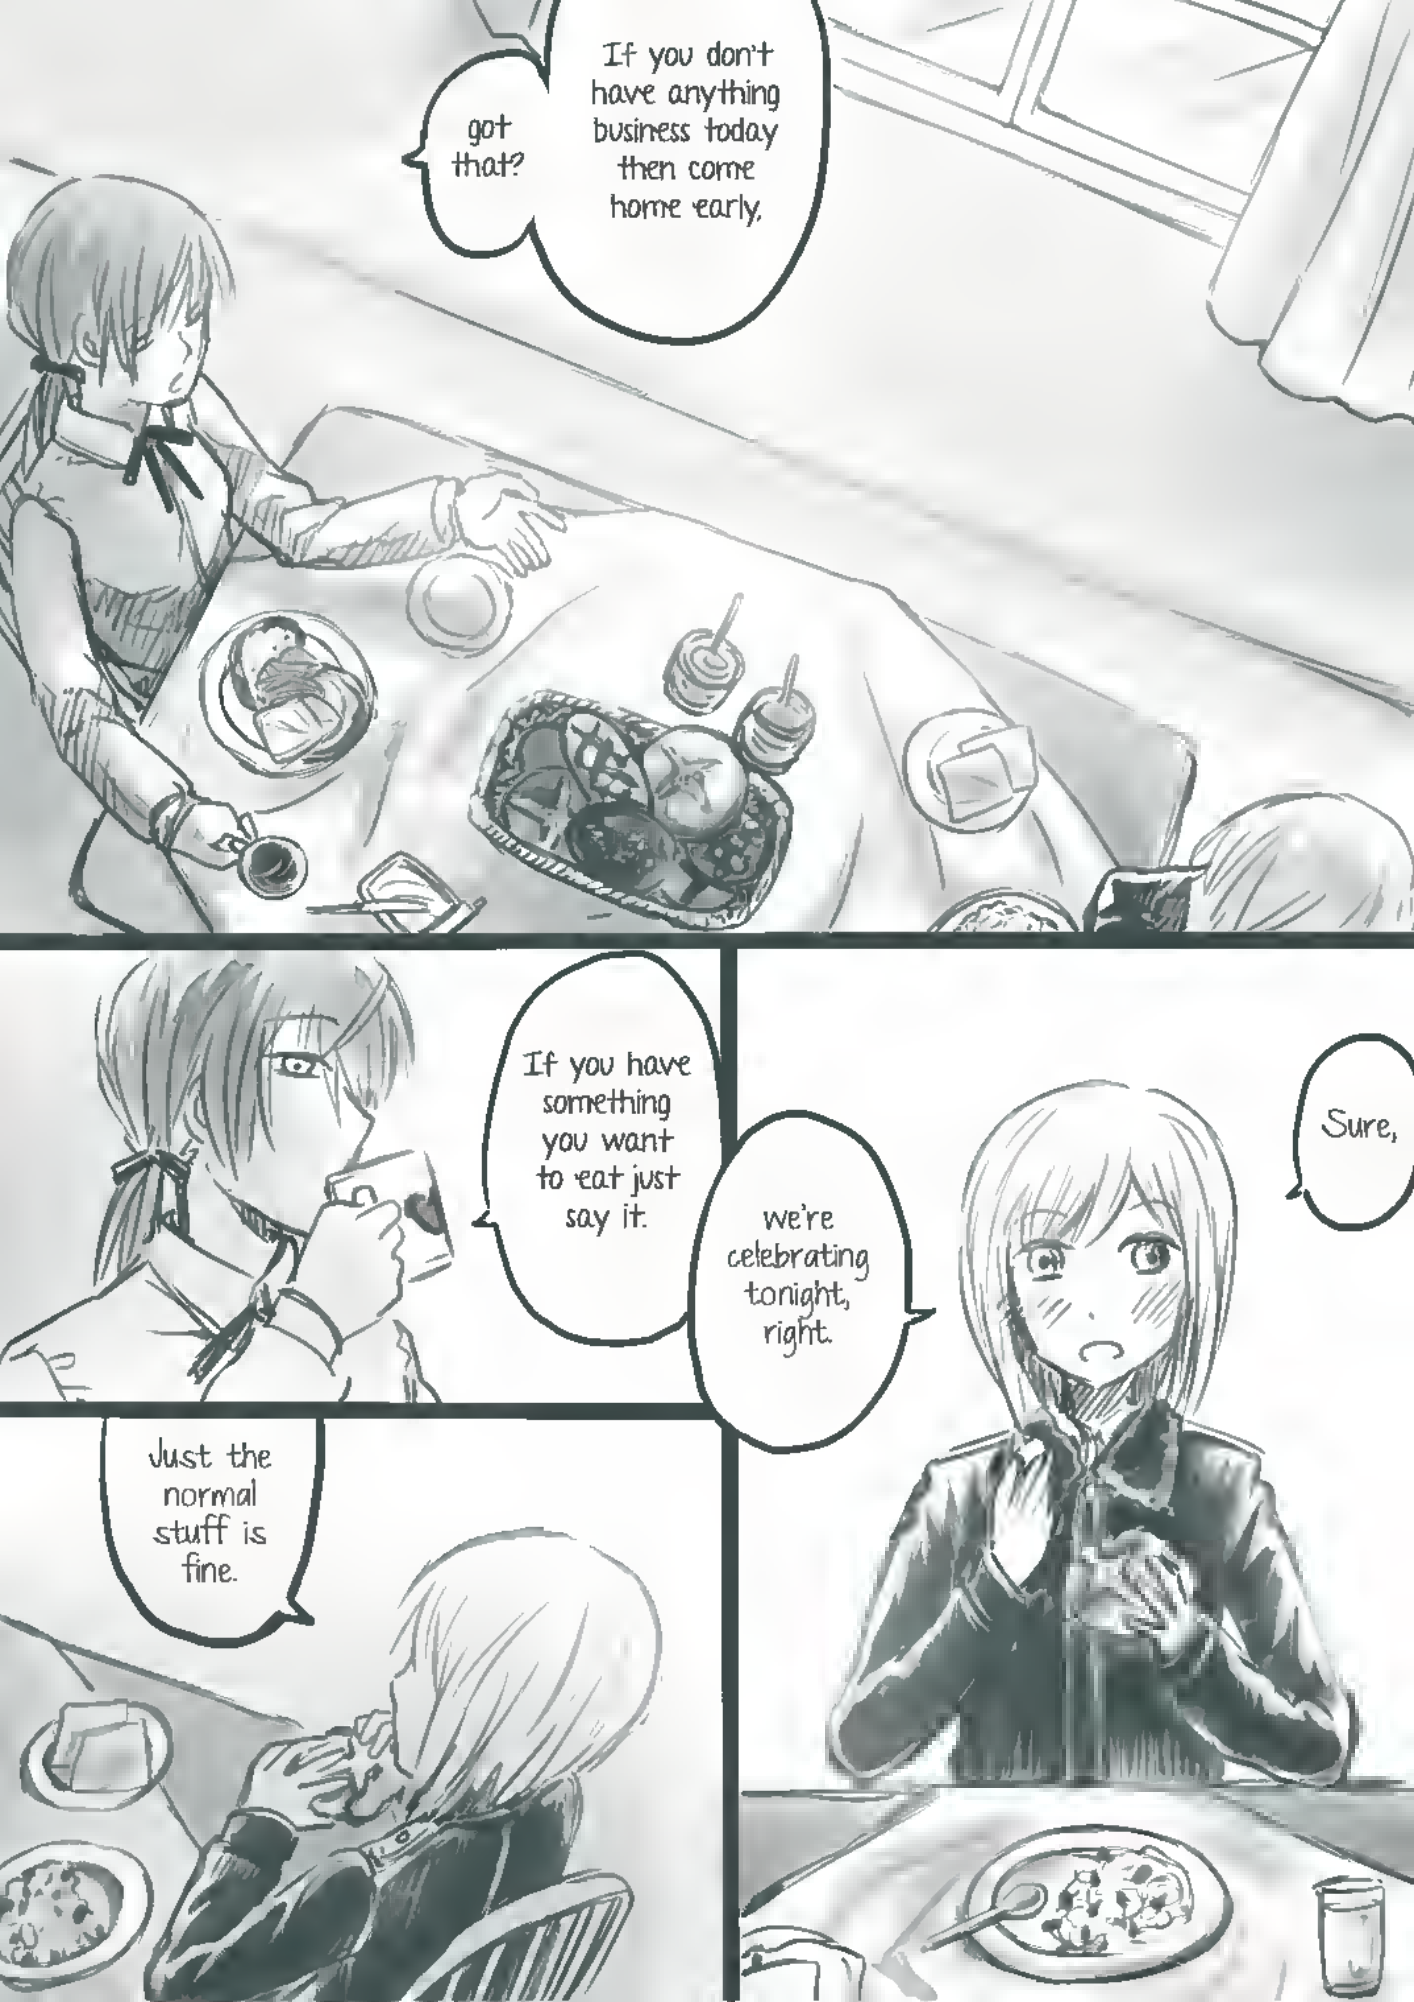




Sometime this doesn't feel real at all. Could it be because I'm too happy?
!?
Ughh... Ouch!
Huh? Why am I...
Is that Erica's hand?
After the winter of that year, we started long-term cohabitation, along with her sister.
Though she's still mostly in the hospital.



Let's not wake her up too early today.
If it was the old me, I probably would've gotten steaming mad.



If you don't have anything business today then come home early, got that?
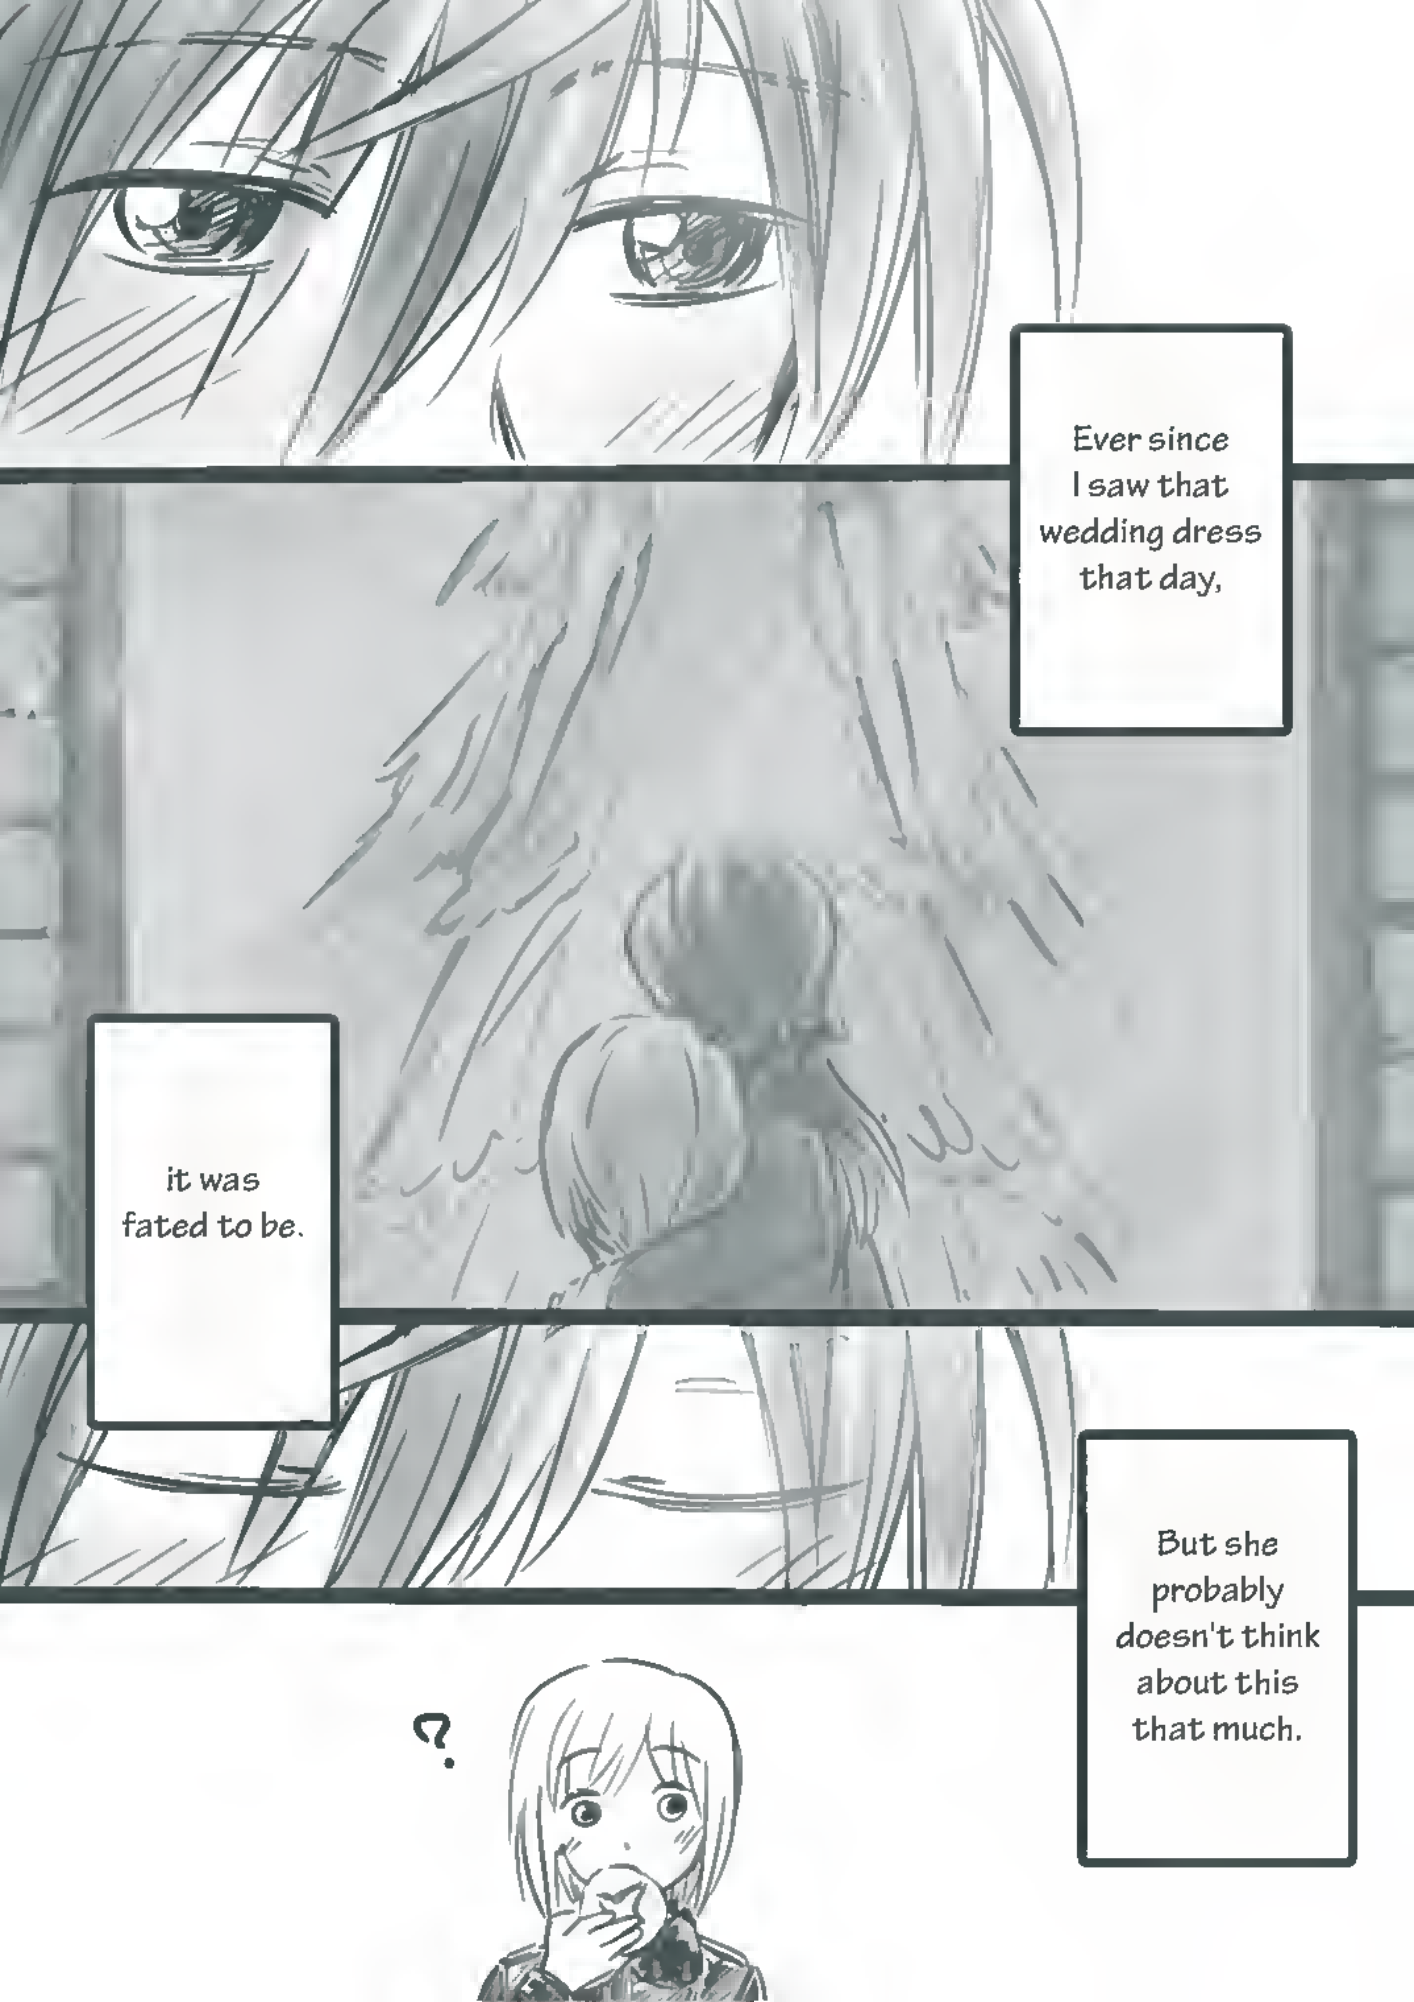
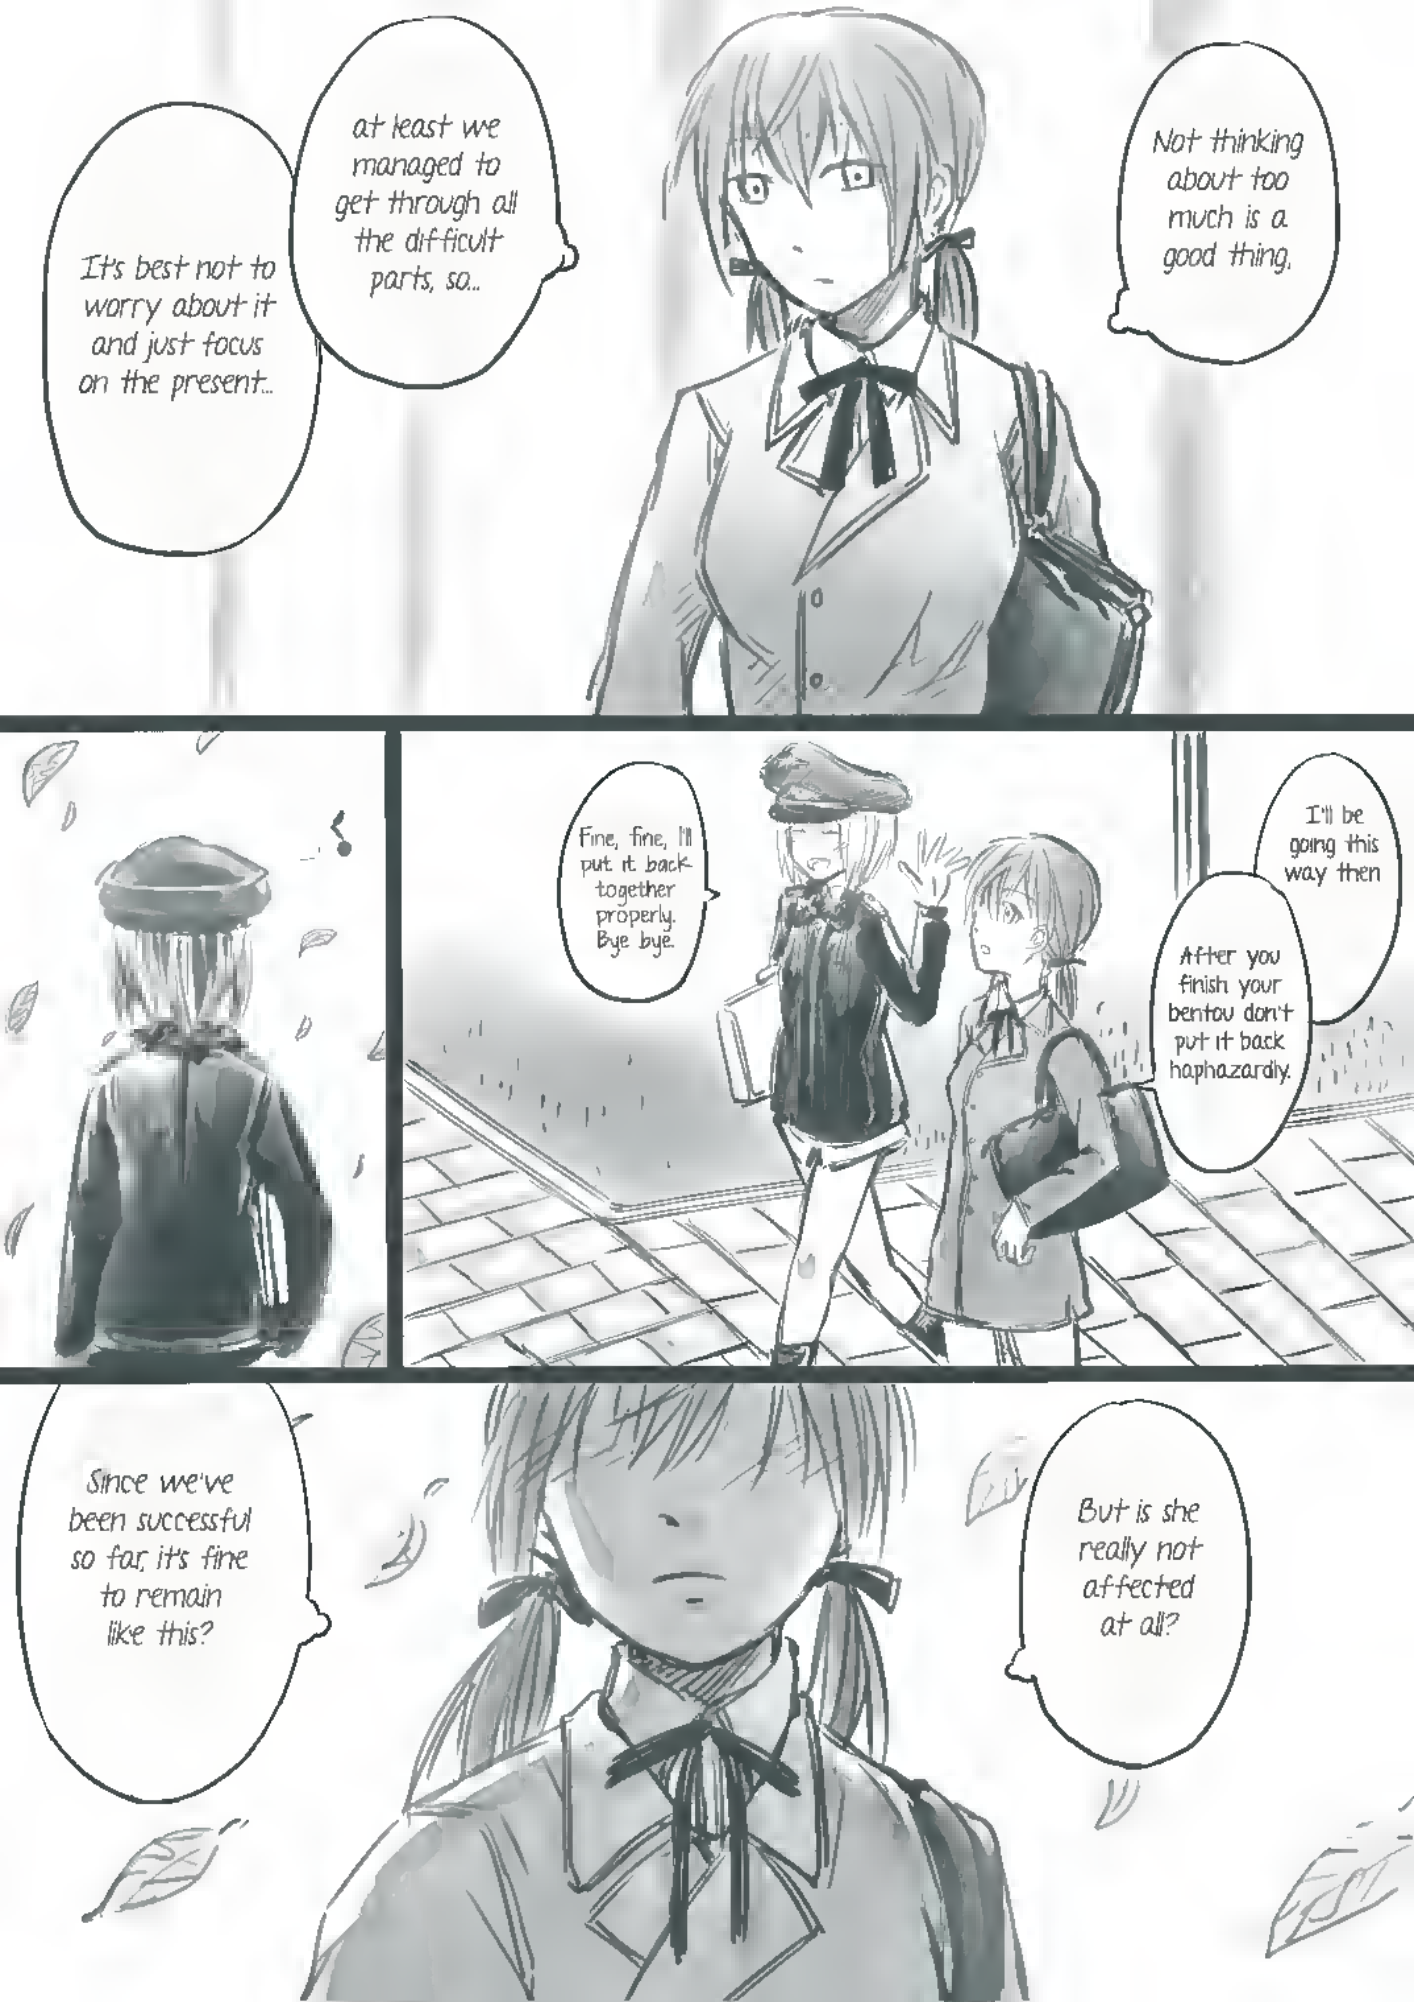
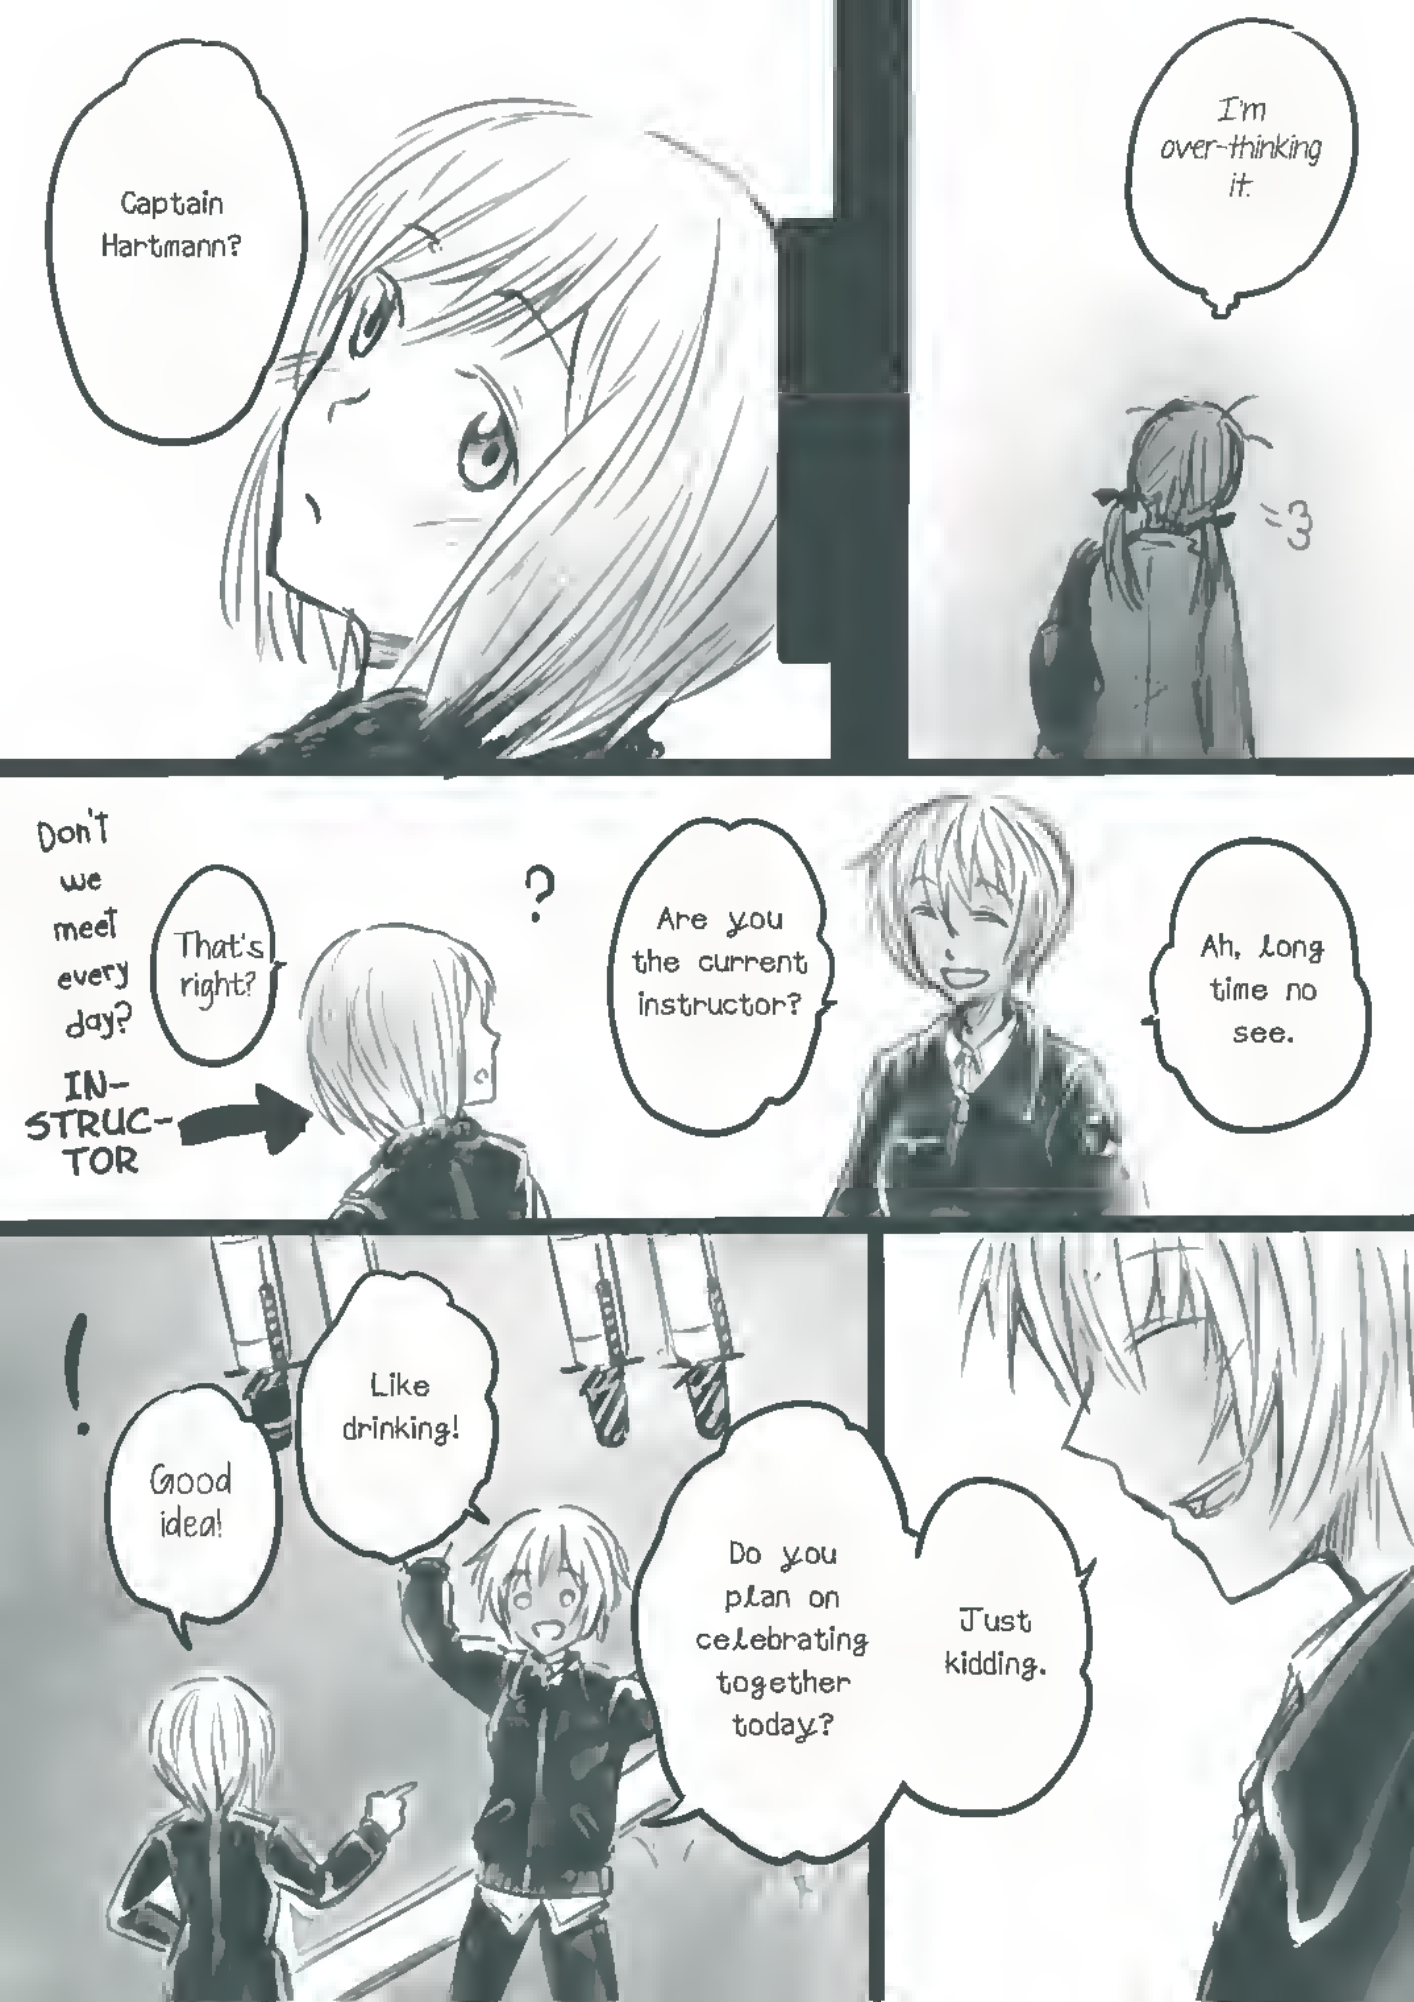
If you have something you want to eat just say it.
we're celebrating tonight, right.
Sure,
Just the normal stuff is fine.



Ever since I saw that wedding dress that day,
it was fated to be.
But she probably doesn't think about this that much.
?.



Not thinking about too much is a good thing.
at least we managed to get through all the difficult parts, so...
It's best not to worry about it and just focus on the present...
I'll be going this way then
After you finish your bentou don't put it back haphazardly.
Fine, fine, I'll put it back together properly. Bye bye.
But is she really not affected at all?
Since we've been successful so far, it's fine to remain like this?



Captain Hartmann?
I'm over-thinking it.
=3
Don't we meet every day?
That's right?
IN-STRUC-TOR
Are you the current instructor?
Ah, long time no see.
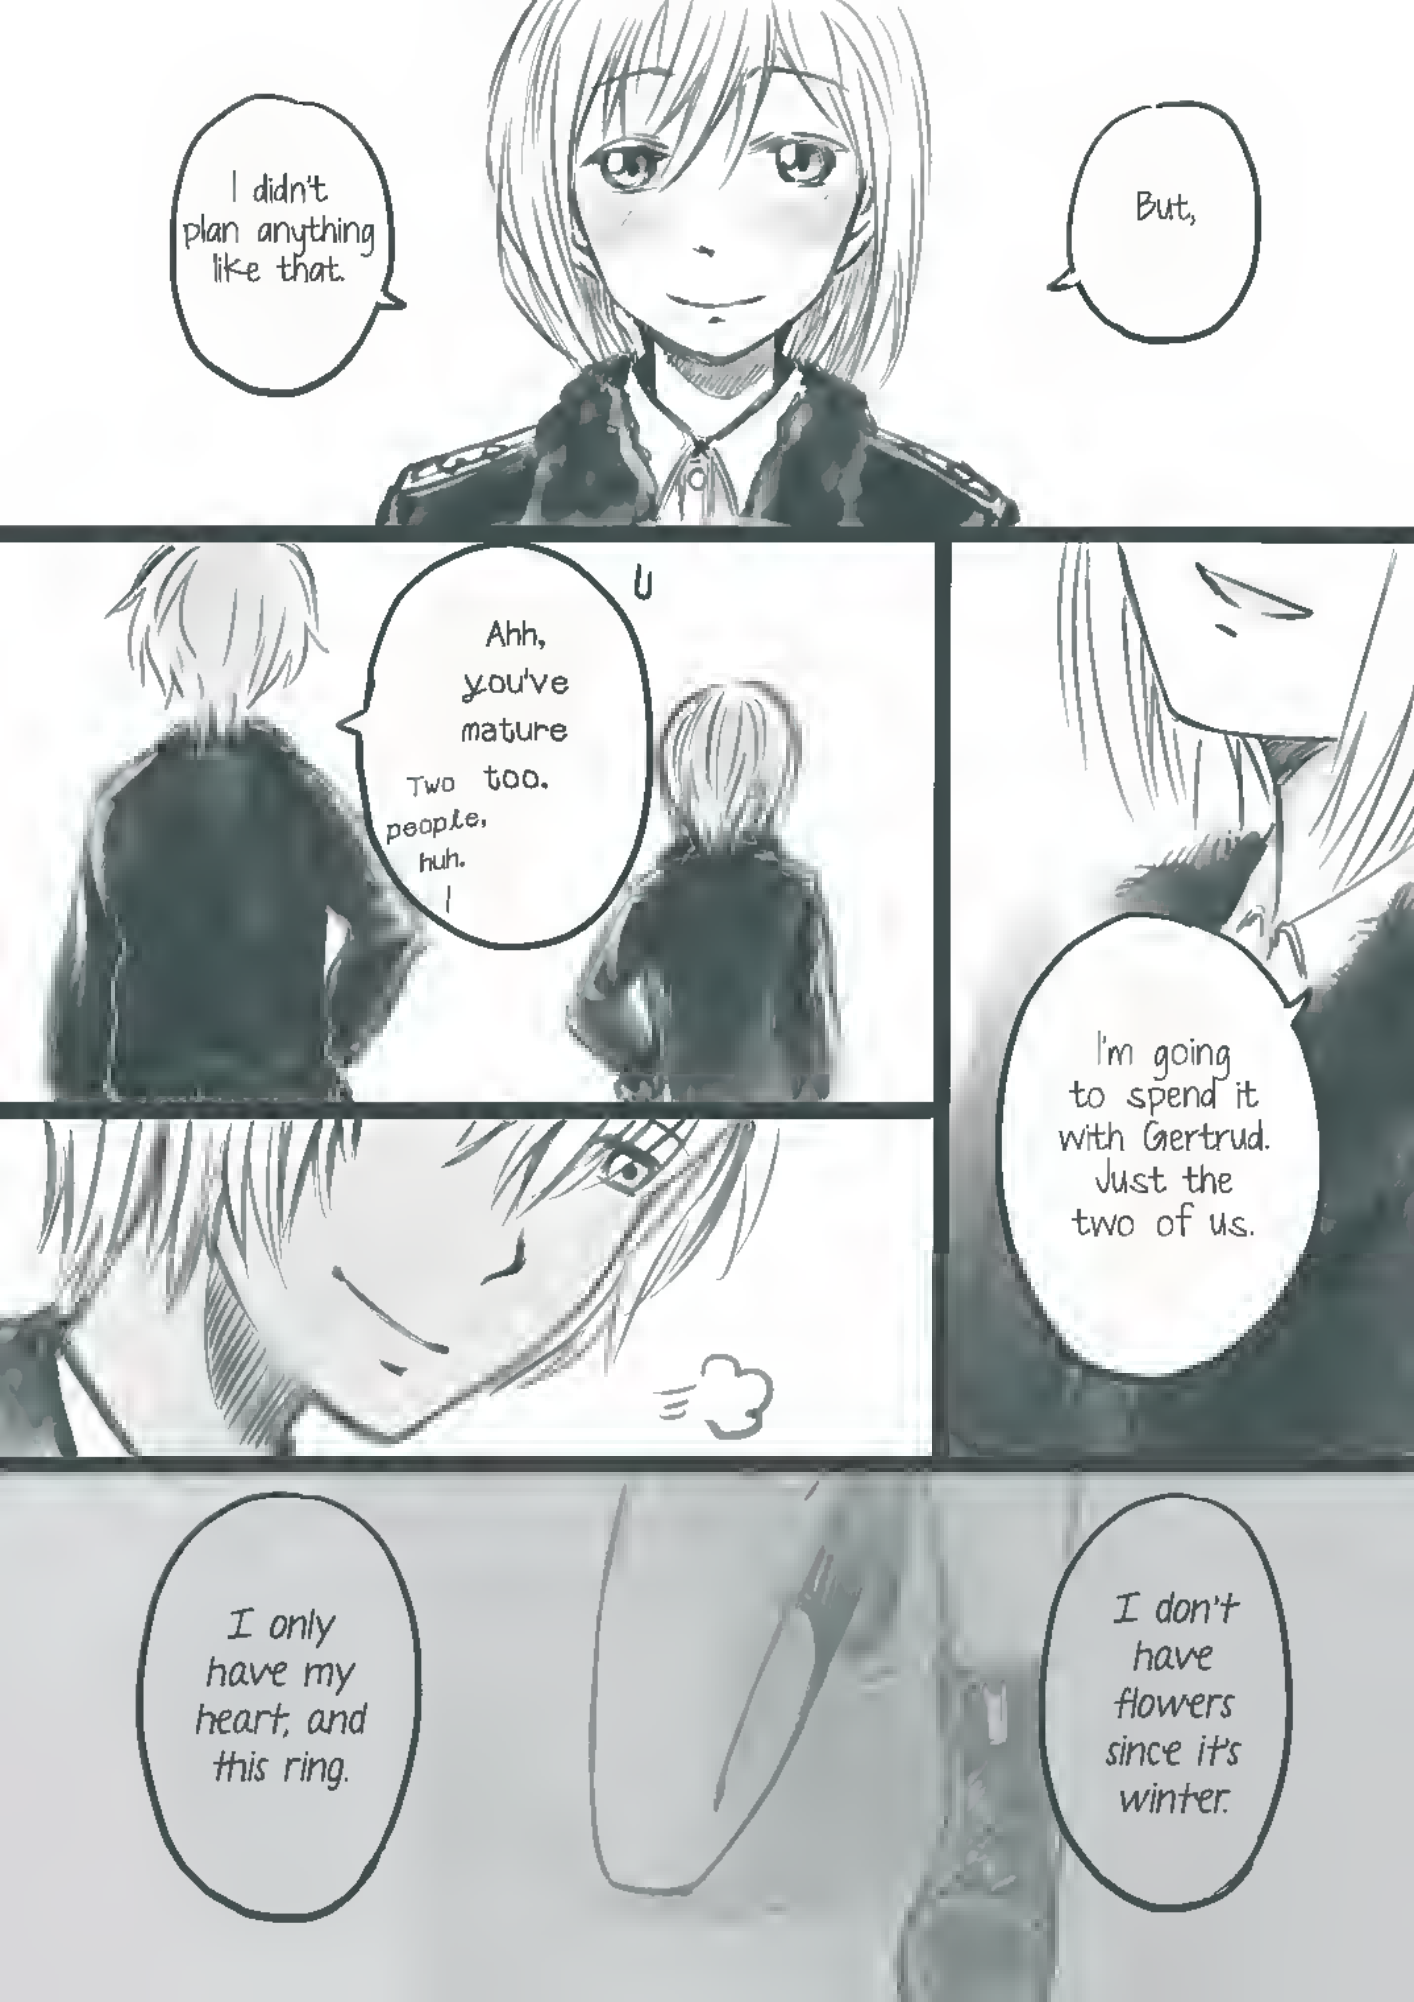
Good idea!
Like drinking!
Do you plan on celebrating together today?
Just kidding.



I didn't plan anything like that.
But,
Ahh, you've matured too.
Two people, huh.
I'm going to spend it with Gertrud. Just the two of us.
I only have my heart, and this ring.
I don't have flowers since it's winter.

Gotta carefully remove the foam on top...
She's probably still stressed about what happened before. Understandable, since a lot has happened after all.
So today I'll away all her worries!
I wanted to bake it, but in the end went with a stew...
Let's open a bottle of the good stuff.

I'm home.

A present for you!
Open it and try it on! It'll be beautiful.
What's going on...
What?
This is the first time you giving me something normal...
What's with that! This...
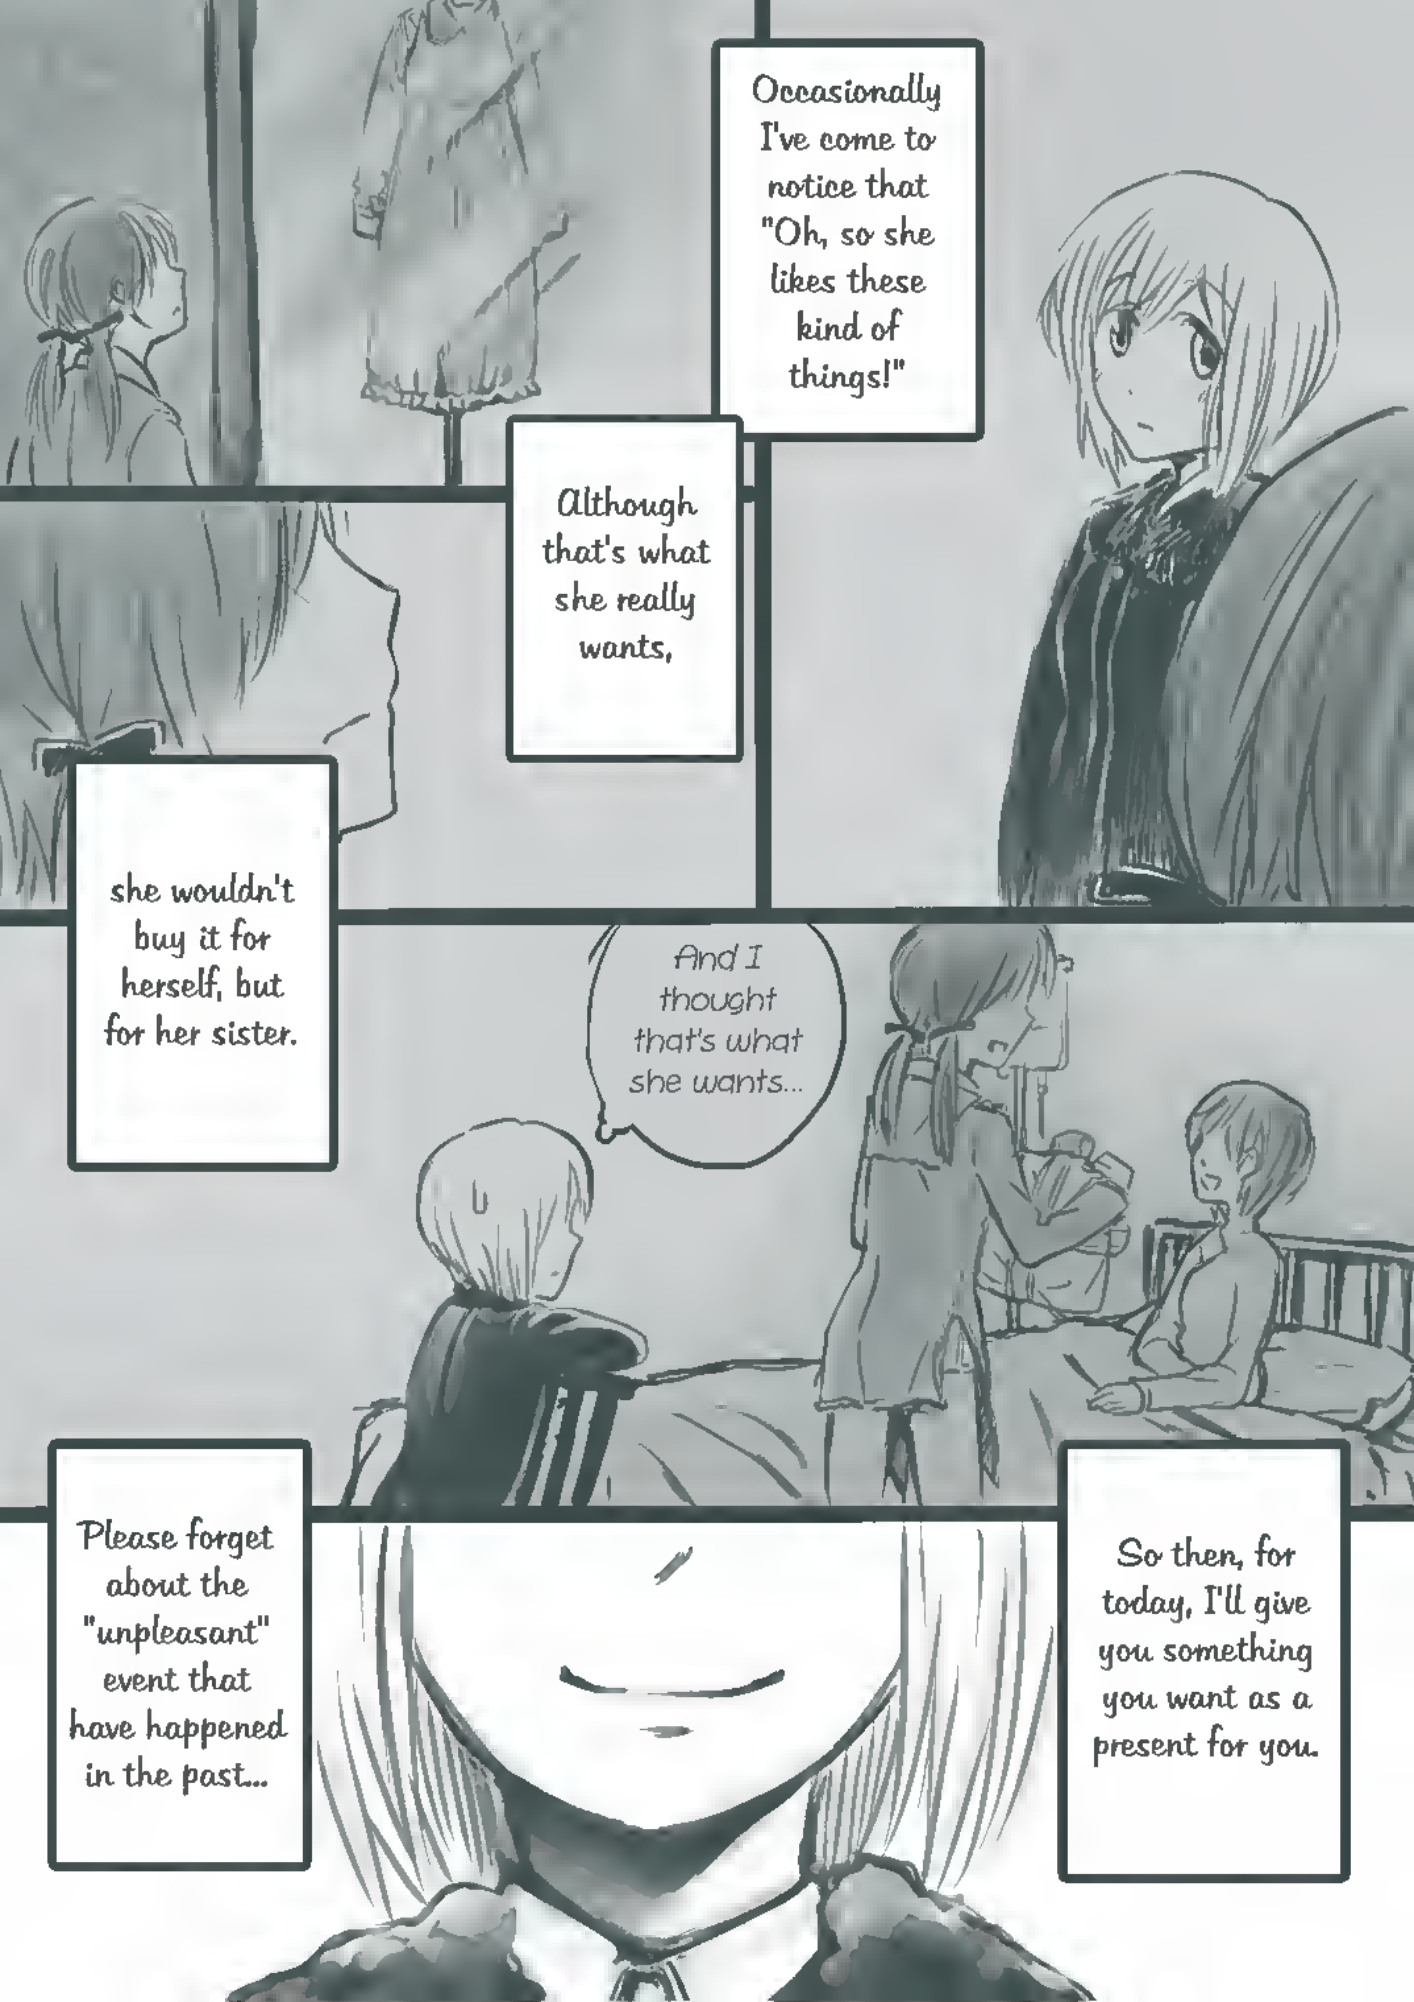
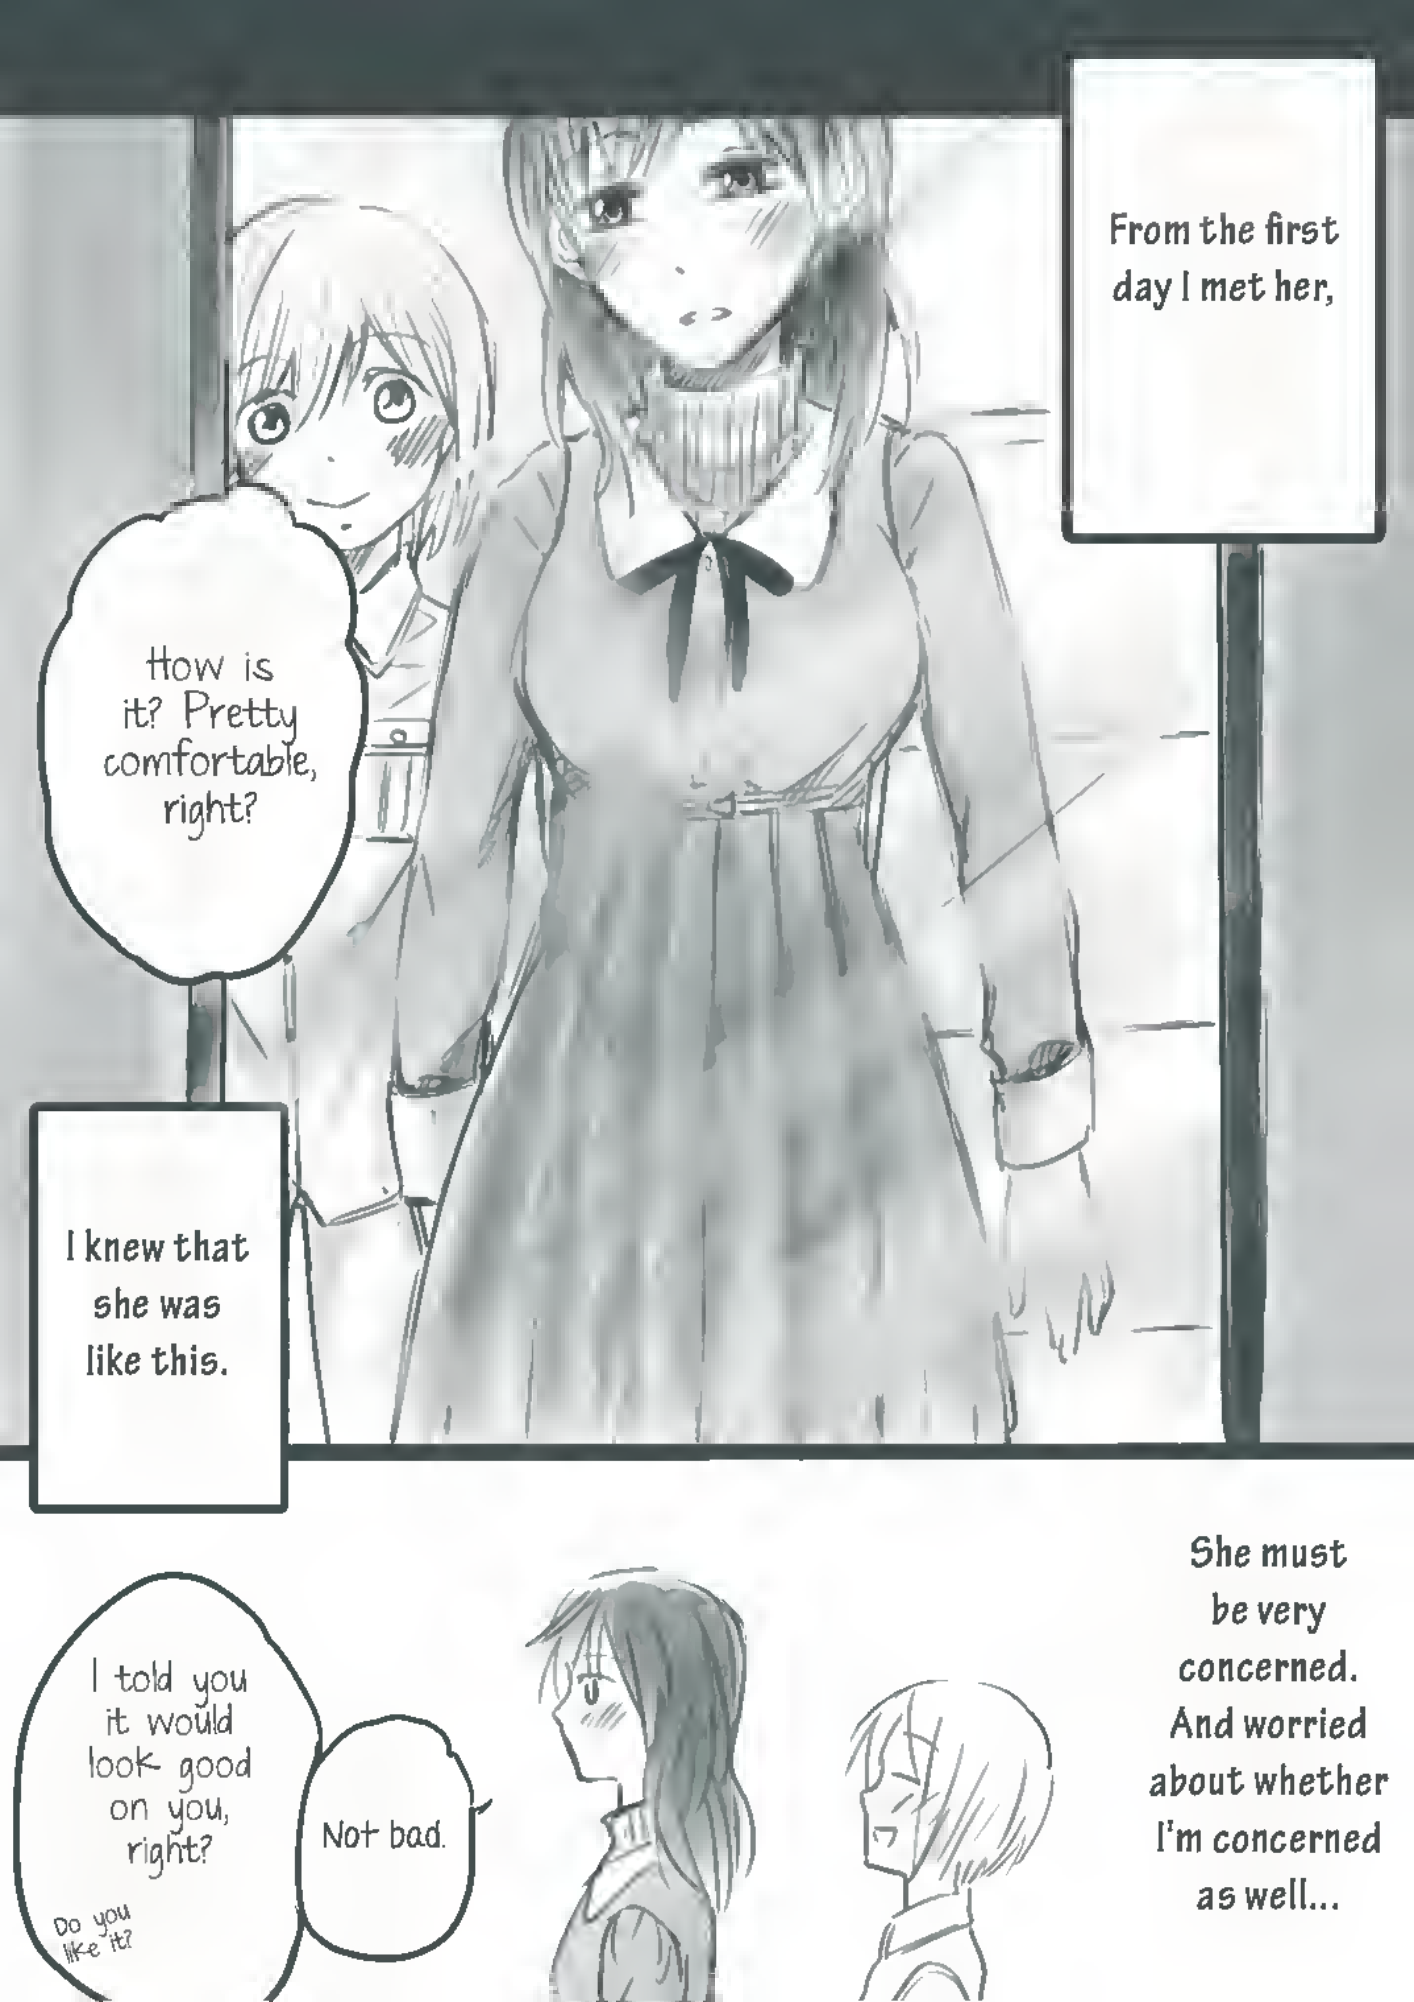
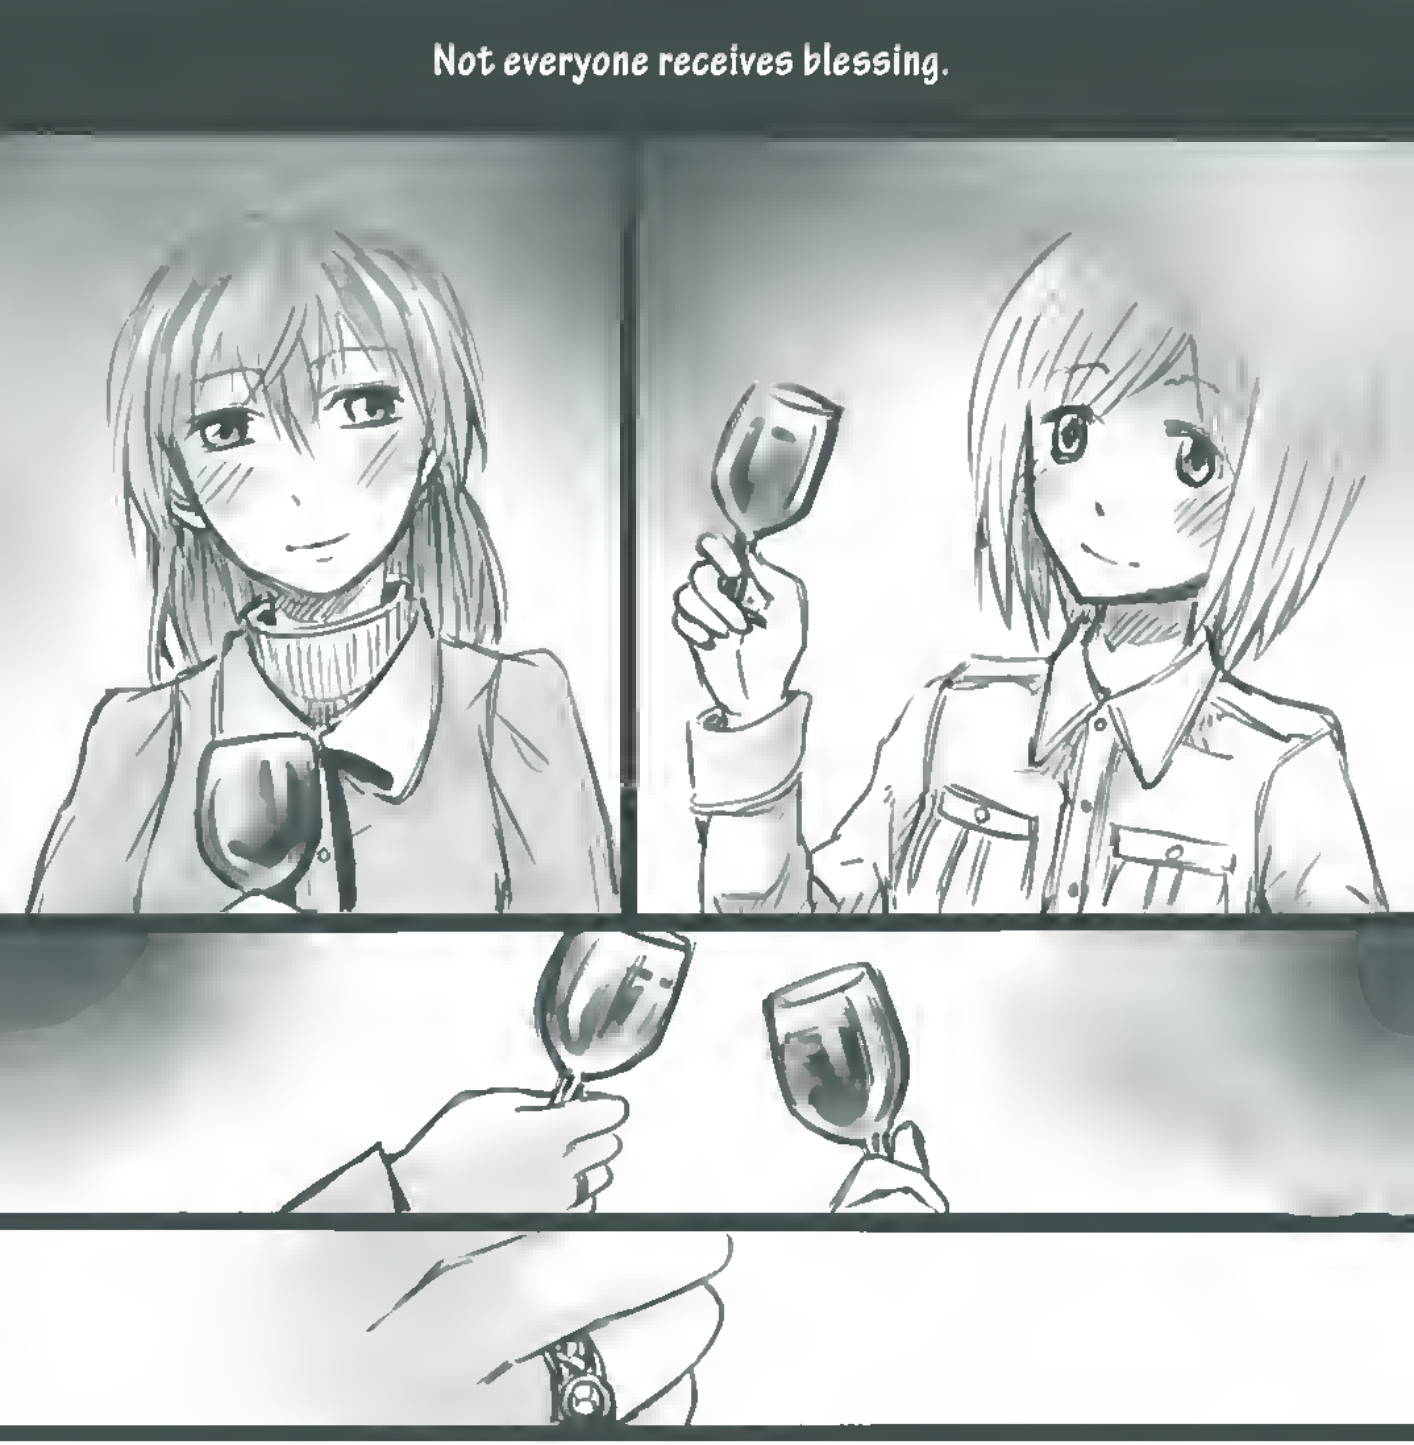
Uh.
OK?
Come on, put it on now!



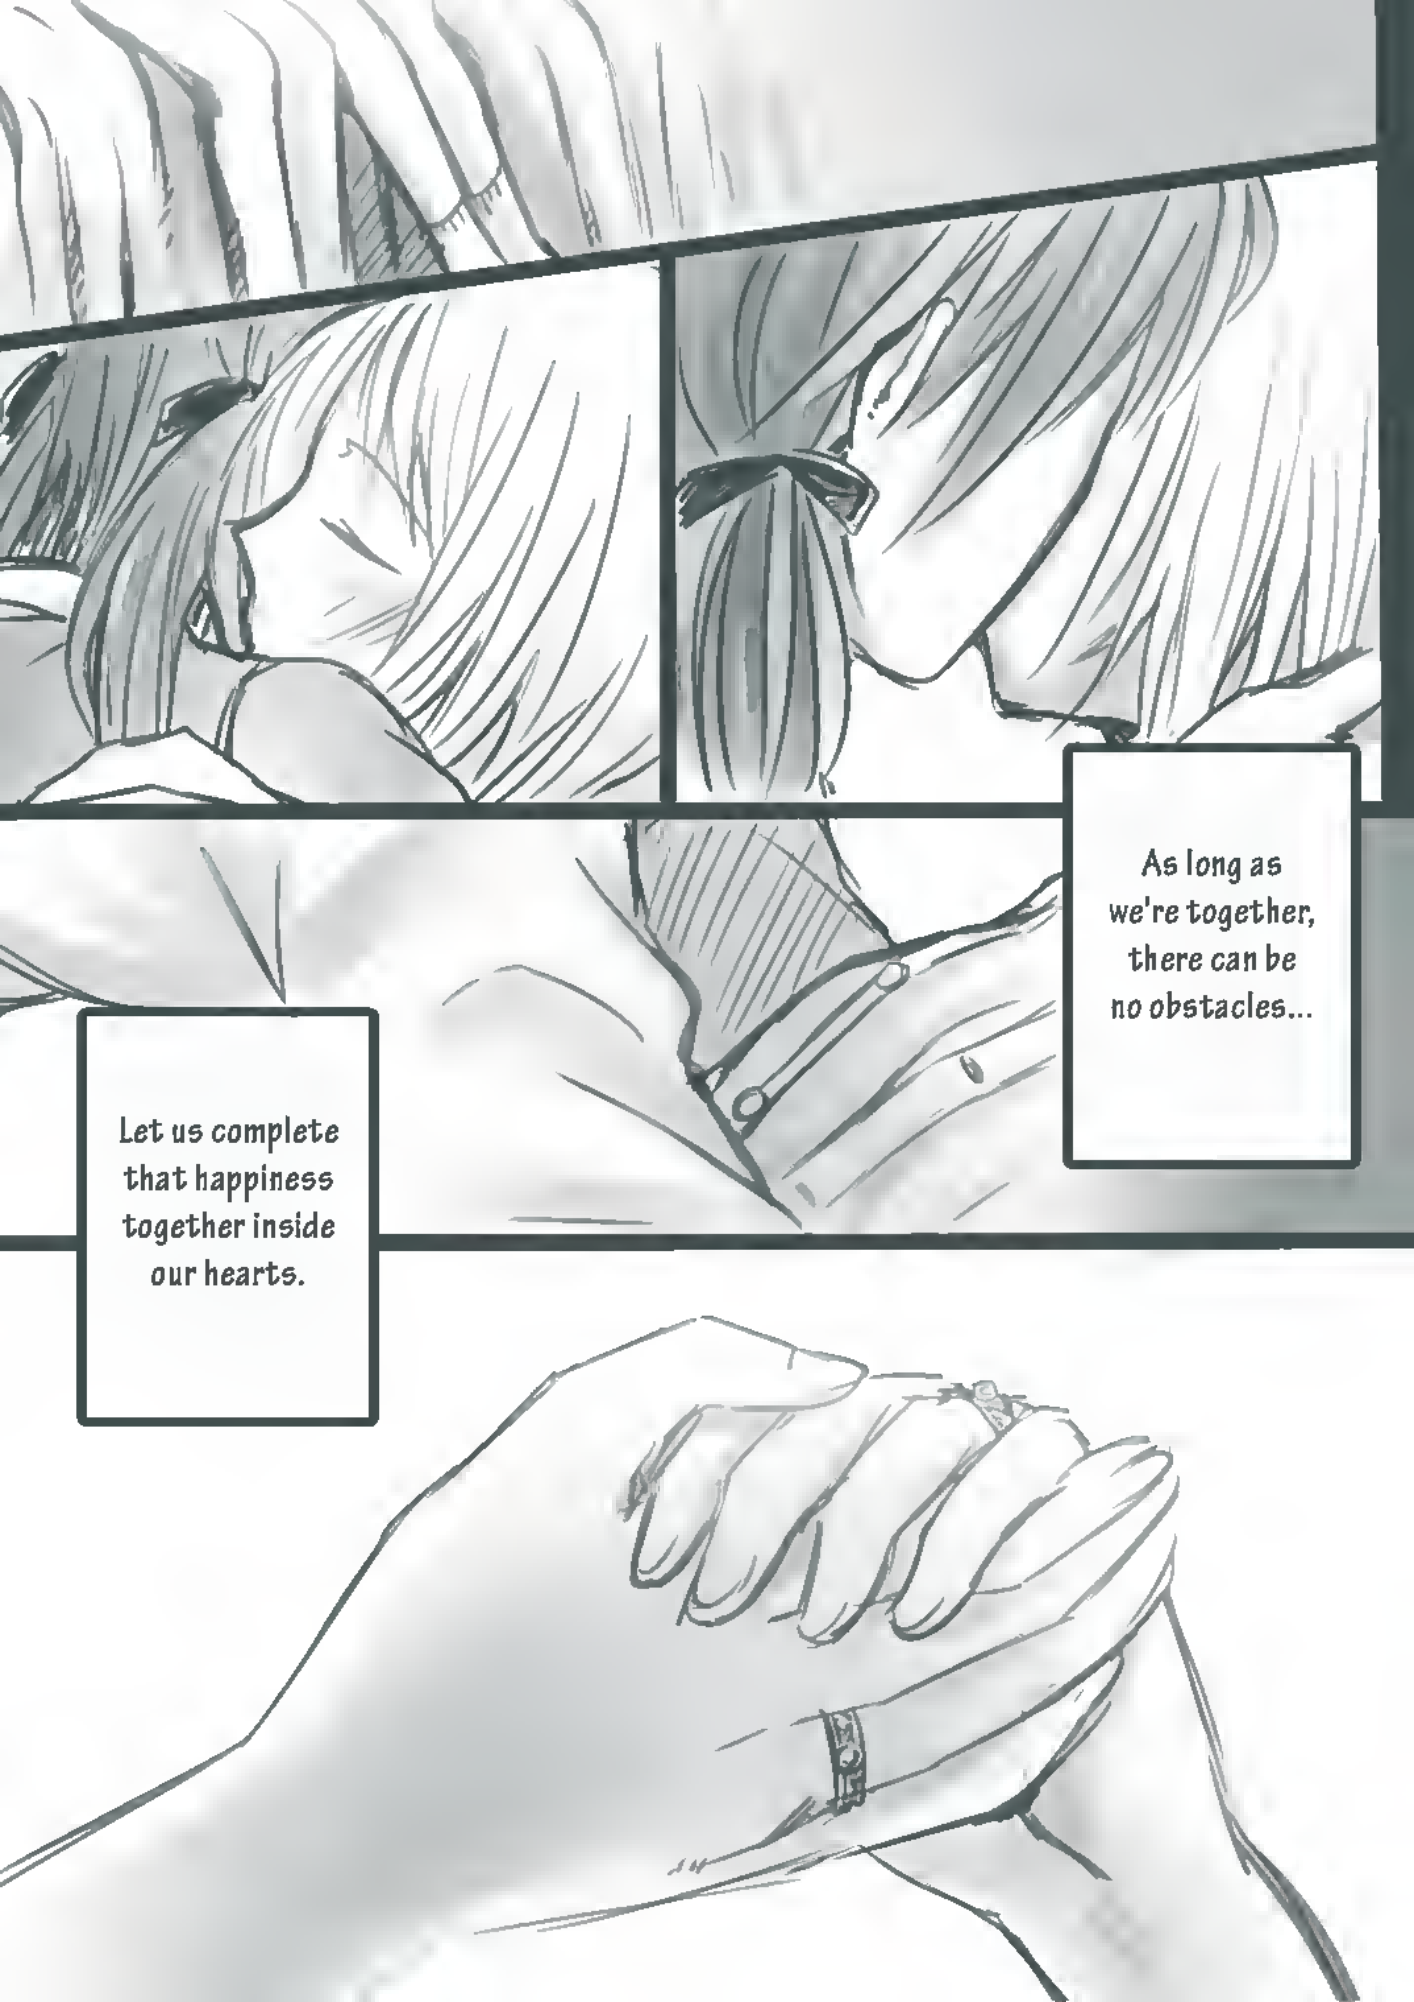
Occasionally I've come to notice that "Oh, so she likes these kind of things!"
Although that's what she really wants,
she wouldn't buy it for herself, but for her sister.
And I thought that's what she wants...
Please forget about the "unpleasant" event that have happened in the past...
So then, for today, I'll give you something you want as a present for you.



From the first day I met her,
How is it? Pretty comfortable, right?
I knew that she was like this.
I told you it would look good on you, right?
Do you like it?
Not bad.
She must be very concerned. And worried about whether I'm concerned as well...



Not everyone receives blessing.
because we want to achieve happiness. We want to know the shape of happiness.
But I think we want to be blessed



As long as we're together, there can be no obstacles...
Let us complete that happiness together inside our hearts.

All this time we were waiting for each other
All this time I was waiting for you
